

ACLF Garden Recommendations

Research Results - Pepper & Tomato Yields

The Conventional fertilizer program and the ACLF Base programs are both optimal fertility levels for these crops and Michigan growing conditions. The ACLF Garden Recommendations are blends of Green and Grow Wright Professional and Green Lawn to match these fertility levels. Yields not quite up to the level of full ACLF Programs, but still better than conventional fertilizers and simple to apply. See the ACLF Garden Recommendations sheets for complete details